Fund BHCT's Education Programs: This auction on both nights!

Your bid supports BHCT's robust Education department, which provides a large roster of programs enriching our community beyond the stage. Whether it is cultivating focus and collaboration in young actors, bringing a Well Done Players performance to residents at local nursing homes, or helping teachers incorporate drama into their classrooms, these programs bring the benefits of theatre and theatre education to those who would not otherwise have access to them

Our programs include:

- Cherry Street Players
- Summer Theater Camps for kids
- The Well Done Players
- Broken Lemons Playwrights Group
- Free in-school residencies
- Assistance for teachers creating drama based curriculum and support for drama programs at local schools
- Adult workshops
- Coaching for local performers and performance related organizations
- Apprentice company for Summer Stage Series
